FLORIDA STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL LOSES AGAIN

February 19, 1997

TALLAHASSEE -- The Florida State women's basketball team remained winless in the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 71-47 loss to No. 21 Clemson this evening at the Tallahassee-Leon County Civic Center. FSU is now 5-20 overall and 0-15 in ACC play while Clemson improves to 17-8 and 8-7 on the year.

Thanks to back-to-back three-pointers, the Lady Seminoles jumped out to an early 18-11 lead and went up 20-12 on a jumper from Latavia Coleman at the 8:38 mark. Coleman's basket, however, would be FSU's last score of the half as Clemson outscored FSU 14-0 in the remaining eight minutes and led 26-20 at the break.

Another three-point basket by Robinson brought Florida State back to within one at 33-34 at the 13:20 mark in the second half, but Clemson scored the game's next eight straight to recapture control of the game. The Tribe again failed to score for another seven-minute stretch during which time Clemson was able to build a 23-point advantage.

Clemson shot just 35 percent from the field, but outrebounded Florida State 59-33. The Lady Tigers were led by Amy Geren's 16 points while Kerri Thomas grabbed a team-leading nine rebounds. Itoro Umoh also scored in double figures, contributing 13 points for Clemson. FSU's Jen Robinson led the way with 15 points while freshman Latavia Coleman tied her season high with a game-high 11 rebounds.

Florida State will close out the regular season on Sunday at 2 p.m. vs. Wake Forest at Tully Gymnasium.
