FLORIDA STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL FALLS TO SMSU

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- Freshman Brooke Wyckoff kept the game close with a solid outing of 17 points and 10 rebounds, but the Florida State women's basketball team fell 68-57 to No. 22-ranked Southwest Missouri State this afternoon at Tully Gym. With the loss, FSU falls to 4-7 while SMSU improves to a perfect 8-0.

It was a three-point game at the half as the Lady Bears led the Seminoles 29-26. FSU jumped out to an early 6-0 lead, but SMSU came back to tie the game at 8-8. The half saw nine ties and seven lead changes.

Florida State could not regain the lead but pulled to within a point twice within the first four minutes of the second half. SMSU built its largest lead of the game at 60-50 with 2:31 to play, but the scrappy Seminoles cut that advantage in half, pulling to within five points at 62-57 with 1:03 to play. The Tribe was forced to foul in the final minute as the Lady Bears hit six straight free throws to take the 11-point victory.

Lysa Moorefield and Latavia Coleman also tallied double figures for FSU with 15 and 13 points, respectively. SMSU's Jackie Stiles scored a game-high 24 points in the contest. The game saw 77 free throw shots attempted as SMSU went 29-38 and FSU went 27-39 from the charity stripe.

FSU will take a break for the holidays and returns to action at Virginia on Jan. 2 at 6 p.m. The game will be aired live in Tallahassee on WNLS Radio AM 1270.
