SEMINOLES FALL TO USF

Coleman leads FSU with 21 points in 84-74 loss.

TAMPA - Despite 21 strong points from senior Forward Latavia Coleman, the Seminoles fell 84-74 to South Florida Monday night at the Sun Dome. The win was the first for USF over the Seminoles since the 1977-78 season. FSU had won 21 consecutive in the series and brought a 32-2 series lead into the game. With the loss, FSU falls to 1-1 on the year while USF improves to 2-0.

"I want to congratulate USF," said FSU coach Sue Semrau. "They played a really hard-fought game. I thought defensively they came out and played active defense. They took it right at us. You could tell the experience that they have and the inexperience that we have.

"Monica Echeverria, I thought she was very aggressive, not only offensively but she went to the boards very well. I thought that she and the way that Shannon Layne shot the basketball were the difference in the game."

Monica Echeverria and Shannon Layne scored 21 and 20 points, respectively, to lead the upset. Echeverria, a two-time junior college All-American at Florida Community College, was 8-of-10 from the field and pulled down a game-high 12 rebounds. Layne's night included 3-of-5 shooting from beyond the three-point arc. Denetrice Stinson and Charmain Leslie joined the pair in double figures with 15 and 13 points, respectively.

USF moved out in front early using six points from Leslie to build a 16-6 lead with 13:30 left in the first half. The Bulls enjoyed a comfortable cushion throughout the half due mainly to 51.6 percent shooting from the field and 15 FSU turnovers. USF led by as many as 15 at 36-21 when Layne hit a three-pointer with 3:59 left.

"I think it had a lot to do with the fact that we had not beaten them since 1978 -- since my second year at Southern Baptist College," said Winters. "It is unbelievable that that has happened to this program. Tonight we might have earned a little bit of respect across the state of Florida. This might have sent a little bit of a message that we're here.

"Without a doubt I thought we were ready. We thought we were ready after the shoot-around today because we felt totally prepared for this team. We knew a lot about their offenses and defenses."

FSU, 1-1, closed the half with field goals from April Traylor and Latavia Coleman to pull within 40-29 at intermission.

The Seminoles came back in the second half and a Katelyn Vujas jumper at 14:34 cut USF's advantage to four at 48-44. Layne scored five consecutive points including a three-pointer with 11:39 left to return the lead back to double digits. Leslie's layup capped a 7-0 run and USF led 59-47. But FSU came back again and a three-pointer from Vanessa Fuchs cut the deficit to 74-70 with 2:32 left. The Bulls hit 8-of-10 free throws in the final 1:58 to seal the win.

Coleman was the only Seminole in double figures as Traylor had nine points and Lauren Bradley added nine.

Florida State will host UT-Chattanooga on Friday, November at 8 p.m., in the first round of the Tallahassee Leon County Civic Center.
