Golfers are 7th

Florida State's Lady Seminole golf team opened their season with a 7th place finish in the University of Miami Invitational tourney last weekend.

Miami-Dade North was the hands-down winner in the two-day tourney, posting a 624 total for the competition. Host team Miami finished second with a 637, and Rollins College of Orlando was third with a 639. Florida State closed out the competition with a 698 shot total for the seventh place finish.

Florida State's Laura Rusk had a two round total of 162, firing an 82 on Saturday and an 80 on Sunday. Becky Baker posted the second lowest score for FSU, shooting a 171. Denise Bosset was third with a 180, and Cindy Hilty was fourth with a 185.

"I thought we played well," stated Head Golf Coach Sylvia Ferdon. "It was really windy and I know that kept some of our scores above what they probably could have been. I'm proud of the way we performed, however."

Florida State will compete in the Rollins Invitational Mar. 16-18.
