LSU's Lidback captures second straight crown

By BOBBY HALL

Louisiana State's Jenny Lidback is playing golf like she's trying to cram all the happiness and success of a collegiate career into one memorable year. She's off to a great start.

Yesterday at Stonebridge Country Club, Lidback claimed her second consecutive championship. She finished the Memphis Women's Intercollegiate tournament with a 1-over-par 74 for a 54-hole total of 217.

"You always want to make your last year your best," said Lidback, a senior who won the Florida State Invitational two weeks ago. "It's your last chance before you turn pro."

In Lidback's case, her last year is important because it's her only year at LSU. She played 2½ years at Texas Christian, but became disenchanted with the program and transferred to LSU. She had to sit out a year because she was a transfer.

"I'm really happy now," said Lidback, 22, a five-time Louisiana amateur champion who speaks with a Swedish accent.

Most of the LSU players were happy yesterday. They easily took the team title with a 912 total — 19 strokes ahead of second-place South Carolina.

Lidback never was seriously challenged after opening with a 72 Sunday. After firing a 71 in the second round, she took a six-shot lead into the final 18 holes.

Through seven holes, she was 2-over after bogeys at Nos. 4 and 7.

"I tried not to think that I might be letting the lead get away," Lidback said. "Then I birdied No. 8 and made a 50-foot putt for a birdie on No. 9. I felt a little better."

On the back nine she had bogeys at Nos. 12 and 15, but birdied the 16th and finished par-par.

Memphis State finished 10th in the 17-team field with 977. Cynthia Giannini's 240 paced the Lady Tigers. Giannini shot three consecutive 80s.
