FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
FLORIDA STATE WOMEN'S GOLF

November 13, 1994

WILMINGTON, NC -- The Florida State women's golf team finished the Northern Telecom National Collegiate Invitational with an impressive fifth place finish. The invitational featured 22 of the top teams from last years NCAA tournament and was held in Wilmington, NC, the site of the 1995 Women's NCAA Championship.

Arizona State, who entered the tournament the odds-on favorite, won the team championship in convincing fashion. The Sun Devils finished 35 strokes ahead of second place finisher North Carolina. South Carolina came in third and Arizona came in fourth, one stroke ahead of FSU.

Arizona State's Wendy Ward won top individual honors with a three round total of 75-73-68-216. She defeated teammate Heather Bowie by four strokes and Meredith Tucker of North Carolina by nine. FSU's Karen Stupples (80-74-74-228) continued an All-American type season by finishing tied for fourth with Heather Graff of Arizona. Kate Burton finished tied for 14th and Mabel Pascuel del Pobil finished tied for 31st.

The invitational was the last of the fall season for the Lady 'Noles. FSU will begin their spring season March 3rd, in Gainesville at the Lady Gator Invitational.
