FSU WOMEN'S GOLF
STUPPLES AND DILLMAN HEAD UP POST SEASON HONORS
JUNE 7, 1995

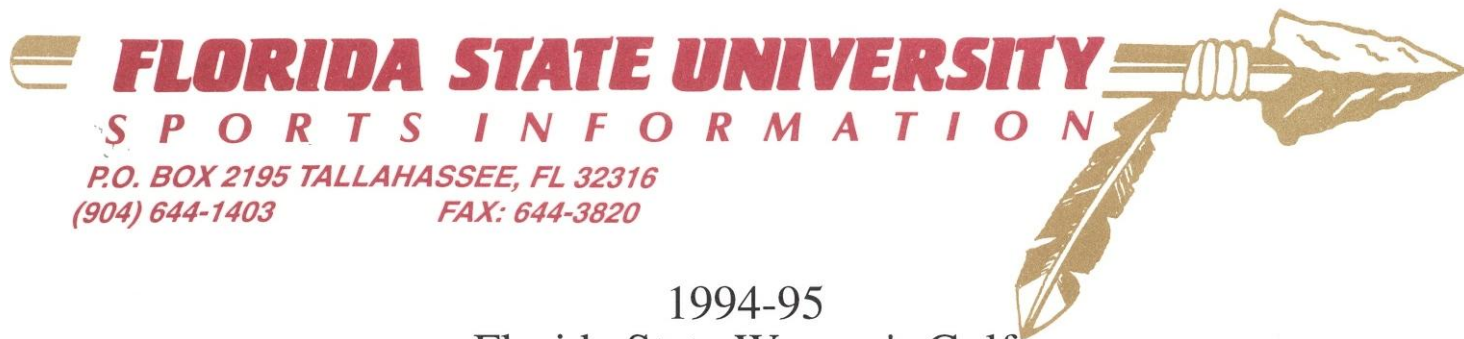

TALLAHASSEE--Karen Stupples, a junior on the Florida State Golf team from Kent, England was recently named a second team All-American. Stupples led the Lady 'Noles in seven of nine of the tournaments this season, including a first overall finish at the Lady Gator Invitational.

Head Coach Debbie Dillman is accumulating post season honors as well. Dillman was recently named National Golf Coaches Association (NGCA) District Coach of the Year for the South district. In her eleventh year as head coach, Dillman led Florida State to a second place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference Championships and a qualification to the NCAA Tournament.

In addition to its success on the course, the FSU women's golf team is a hit in the classroom as well. Mabel Pascual del Pobil, Aguri Okura, and Tiffany Faucette were recently named to the NGCA All-Scholar Academic team.

In order to be considered for the honor, athletes must compete in 66 percent of the team's matches and hold at least a 3.4 cumulative grade point average.
