SEMINOLES FINISH 11TH AT SHORTENED NCAA FALL PREVIEW

HOWIE-IN-THE-HILLS, Fla. -- The Florida State University women's golf team finished 11th at the rain-shortened NCAA Fall Preview women's golf tournament hosted by Stetson University at Mission Inn's El Campeon Course. The event was shortened from three rounds to two because of rainy weather conditions.

The event was halted at 12:30 Saturday afternoon as heavy rains pounded the area. The round continued nearly three hours later but tournament officials decided to cancel the final round due to the impending threat of Hurricane Gordon. The hurricane is expected to dump up to seven inches of rain on the area Sunday. Play finished Saturday in a driving rain storm.

Senior Louise Wright (Ipswich, England) led the Seminoles with a two-day total of 151. She finished in a tie for 17th place with a five-over par two-day total. She was followed by sophomore Beth McCumber who shot an 11-over par 157. Freshman Alison Curdt (Ellisville, Mo.) shot the best second round for the Seminoles as she shot a four-over par 76 on Saturday.

The Seminoles continue their fall schedule as they play host to the Dodge ACC/SEC Invitational Shootout at Sandestin Golf and Beach Resort from Sept. 28-Oct. 1.

Duke Captures Weather-Shortened NCAA Fall Preview; Wake Duo Takes Individual Honors For Immediate Release

September 16, 2000

Contact: Cris Belvin

HOWEY-IN-THE-HILLS, FL--Duke University fired a final round 299 to capture the 2000 NCAA Fall Preview championship, in a weather shortened event, Saturday at Mission Inn's El Campeon course.

Earlier in the day play was halted for nearly three hours as heavy rains pounded the area. Tournament officials decided to cancel the final round due to the impending threat of Hurricane Gordon, which is expected to dump up to seven inches of rain in Lake County on Sunday. Play finished Saturday in a driving rain storm.

The Blue Devils win the Fall Preview for the second consecutive season, shooting 296-299=595, 11-over par as a team. Duke edged out defending national champion Arizona by three strokes.

Duke was led by Kristina Engstrom and Leigh Anne Hardin, who each tied for fourth with a 148 for the tourney. Arizona's Cristina Baena bogeyed her last two holes to finish third at 147, one stroke behind the Wake Forest duo of Marta Prieto and Maria Beautell, who each shot 146.

Tennessee finished third at 601, followed by Wake Forest at 603 and Southern Cal in fifth at 605.
