ZIMMER LEADS FLORIDA STATE WITH CAREER BEST TOURNAMENT

GREENVILLE, S.C. -- Florida State junior Alison Zimmer earned her lowest career score and earned her top individual finish in leading the Seminole women's golf team to a 13th place finish at the Lady Paladin Invitational at the Furman University Golf Course. Competition in the three-round tournament finished on Sunday. Auburn University, led by individual medalist Celeste Troche, earned the team title.

Zimmer, a Tallahassee, Fla., native shot a 73 in the third round, and finished with a 226 score for the tournament. She finished in a tie for 27th place. Her 73 single-round score was the second lowest of her career; the 226 tournament score was the lowest of her career and the individual placement was the highest of her career. Zimmer shot a career-best 72 in the second round of the tournament on Saturday.

Seminole senior Louise Wright finished one stroke behind Zimmer with a three-round score of 227. Wright shot a 74 in the first round and a 75 in the third round. Freshman Alison Curdt turned in an impressive third round score as she tied her career-low with a 76 and finished with a career-best tournament score of 237.
