SEMINOLE WOMEN'S GOLF TEAM EARNS HIGHEST FINISH IN NEARLY THREE YEARS AT LADY SEAHAWK INVITATIONAL

WALLACE, N.C. – The Florida State University women's golf team finished in a tie for first place in the team standings but lost out on a tie-breaker ruling to NC State and were awarded second place at the Lady Seahawk Invitational at the River Landing Golf Course. The Seminoles and Wolfpack finished in a tie with 904 strokes through the three rounds of play, but NC State was awarded the championship in a card playoff that calculated the scores of each of the teams' five golfers. NC State won the card playoff by a score of 1,140 – 1,144.

The Seminoles' finish marked their highest since Sept. 24-26, 1999 when the team finished second at the Lady Seminole Invitational at Seminole Golf Course.

Seminole junior Kristin Tamulis (Naples, Fla.) finished in fifth place in the team standings with personal best three-round score of 220. She shot even par in two of the three rounds during the tournament and finished only two strokes out of the top individual spot. It marked the second consecutive tournament she had earned a top 10 individual finish. Tamulis finished seventh at last week's Lady Gamecock Classic.

Senior Alison Zimmer (Tallahassee, Fla.) earned her top career finish as she completed the tournament in a tie for 15th-place in the individual standings. She shot a three-over par 75 in the third round and finished with a tournament total of 228. Her three-round total is the second best of her career and best since carding a 226 during the 1999 Lady Paladin Invitational.

Sophomore Carrie Sordel (Windermere, Fla.) finished a tie for 23rd-place to mark the third time this season she had finished in the top 25 of the individual standings. Sophomore Alison Curdt (St. Louis, Mo.) finished in a tie for 37th-place to mark the third best finish of her Seminole career.

Florida State's next tournament outing comes at the Ryder/Florida Championships at Don Shulas' Golf Resort in Miami Lakes, Fla., March 5-7.

WALLACE, N.C. – North Carolina State topped Atlantic Coast Conference rival Florida State in a card playoff to capture the championship of the UNCW Lady Seahawk Golf Invitational Tuesday at River Landing Golf Club. Penn State's Katie Fucher and Maryland's Erin Clasper were declared co-champions individually.

The young Wolfpack, featuring four freshmen and one sophomore in the lineup, fashioned a 300-299-305=904 total over the two-day event at River Landing and took the team title by virtue of its five-player total of 1140. The Seminoles carded a 298-304-302=904 and had a five-player total of 1144.

"We played steady, really executed and played the golf course," said Page Marsh Lea, who started the Wolfpack program again just one year ago after a 14-year hiatus. "The girls have played very well this year. I told them to stay in the rounds. Winning is an extra bonus for us."

The Wolfpack won its third straight tournament of the spring after taking Florida Southern's Lady Moc Classic and the Peggy Kirk Bell Invitational.

Fucher and Clasper, with two-over-par 218's, shared medalist honors because of travel requirements. Fucher shot a 71-76-71=218 and Clasper had a 71-74-73=218.
