FLORIDA STATE SOCCER SNAGS VICTORY

October 7, 1995

LINCOLN, NEB -- The Florida State University women's soccer team snapped its four-game losing streak with a decisive 4-1 victory over Iowa State this afternoon. With the win, the Tribe improves to 4-6-1 on the season.

FSU outshot the Cyclones 26 to 5 and recorded 13 cornerkicks, while ISU had just one.

"I was very pleased with the team's overall performance today," head coach Heather Kerby said. "It was a team effort out there."

Florida State's Lauren Lynch continues her excellent play as she recorded seven shots, scored one goal and assisted another. Jessica Driscoll, Kelly McGrath and Erica Schuler also tallied goals for the squad.

"Lauren continues to play well for us," Kerby said. "Jenni Sharpe swept for us today and distributed the balls very well for us."

FSU will play Nebraska tomorrow at 2 p.m.

"We are looking forward to tomorrow match with Nebraska," Kerby said. "Now that we got that win, we are looking forward to starting a new streak -- a winning one."
