FSU SOCCER ENDS SEASON WITH 9-0 LOSS TO CAROLINA

November 2, 1995

COLLEGE PARK, MD - The Florida State University women's soccer team found out firsthand this afternoon why North Carolina is the nation's number one ranked team as the Tribe fell 9-0 in quarterfinal action of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament at Ludwig Field. FSU ends their inaugural season with a 4-14-1 record. North Carolina improves to a perfect 21-0 on the year and will play the winner of Duke-Virginia on Friday.

UNC sophomore sweeper Nel Fettig set up a pair of goals in the first 18 minutes and sophomore forward Aubrey Falk scored just the second hat trick in Tournament history to lead the Tar Heels to the victory.

The Seminoles were outshot 24-3 as North Carolina had an ACC Tournament record 16 cornerkicks to FSU's two.

Freshman goalie Jenni Roberts, in just her third start of the season, snagged seven saves for Florida State.
