FLORIDA STATE TO FACE NO. 1 NORTH CAROLINA AT ACC TOURNEY

.....

Having played three games in the last four days of the regular-season, the Seminoles (4-13-1) regroup for their match with the Tar Heels at the ACC Tournament.

THE GAME

11/2 vs. North Carolina 1 pm

The nation's No. 1 team, the North Carolina Tar Heels enter the ACC Tournament with a perfect 7-0 league mark and an overall record of 20-0.

The first time vs. the Tar Heels:

The Seminoles took a 1-0 lead at the 52:35 mark on a Janine Lavoie goal after a wild penalty box scramble. UNC then inserted seven starters into the lineup, but FSU GK Melissa Juhl continued to thwart UNC with several remarkable saves. UNC's Debbie Keller scored a pair of goals, including the game-tying goal with 4:03 left in regulation and the winner at 4:28 in OT to lead the Tar Heels to their 17th victory the season and 27th consecutive win. Juhl recorded 17 saves in a game which was played in heavy downpours of rain.

COACH KERBY SAYS...

(after UNC match)

"We almost pulled off probably one of the biggest upsets of the century tonight. It was a well battled game. Melissa Juhl was brilliant. She made a number of excellent saves and was probably player of the match."

(on upcoming UNC match)

"Their (UNC) starters will be excited to set the record straight with us. It will definitely hurt not having Melissa Juhl in goal for us. She was brilliant when we played them up there. But who knows. We just need to play to our potential and we'll see what happens."

TALLAHASSEE'S A SOCCER TOWN

FSU enjoyed a strong home field atmosphere as the Seminoles have drew an average of 584 fans through their five home games this season. It's obvious that 'Nole fans also love FSU's newest "football" team.

DIRECTOR HART GETS INTO THE ACTION

At Florida State's first-ever women's soccer home match vs. West Florida on Sept. 7, Athletic Director Dave Hart, Jr., showed a glimpse of his athletic ability. Dianne Montgomery, the Dean of the College of Social Work and chairperson of the Title IX Committee, got things started as she cut the ribbon and then Hart scored the ceremonial first goal.

LAVOIE SCORES AT HOME

Canada-native Janine Lavoie became the first Seminole ever to score in a regular-season match as well as the first to score at home. It was just 10 minutes into the West Florida match that Lavoie made FSU athletics history!!

FIRST SIGNEE, FIRST GOAL

Florida State's first competition against Florida Atlantic in preseason action back on August 26 was special for two reasons. First and foremost, the 'Noles recorded a 3-0 shut-out victory. Not bad, considering Coach Kerby has named her entire squad just three days prior! And secondly, the first-ever FSU goal was scored by Maitland, Fla., native Kelly Huff, FSU's first-ever signee!!

FSU SOCCER NOTES

ON THE ROAD AGAIN AND AGAIN

The Seminoles endured a very trying and hectic regular-season schedule in its inaugural season. Florida State enjoyed just five contests at the friendly confines of Seminole Field, while playing 13 matches, including the last 10, away from Tallahassee. October was especially hectic with eight total matches, including three in the last four days of the regular season.

WHO ARE THESE SEMINOLES?

Twenty-two players don the first-ever Florida State soccer roster --- 12 of whom are scholarship athletes. Fourteen hail from our very own Florida while four are from Georgia, one is from Michigan, one is from Texas, one is from Tennessee and one is from Canada. The young squad consists of one senior, two juniors, two sophomores and 17 freshmen.

JUHL SUFFERS SEASON-ENDING INJURY

Goalkeeper Melissa Juhl sustained a broken bone in her pinky finger in the final minutes of last Friday's match at Georgia. The injury has forced Juhl to miss the remainder of the season. Juhl played 1266 of 1650 possible minutes for the Seminoles this season. She recorded 155 saves -- which not only ranked first in the ACC, but doubled the saves of all other league players.

STRADTMAN GOES DOWN

Midfielder Jacki Stradtman suffered a broken arm and tore her medial collateral ligament in Friday's match at Georgia. Stradtman played in 16 matches, had five starts, scored one goal and assisted two others for four points.

LYNCH LAYS IT ON AT THE END

Forward Lauren Lynch, who had scored just two goals going into last weekend's action, recorded a hat-trick against Georgia, bringing the Seminoles to within one goal of the Bulldogs. She scored FSU's lone goal vs. Wake Forest as well, bringing her total point total to 14 points, good for second place on the team.

HAT-TRICK ... TWICE

Alexandra Osorio and Kelly McGrath each scored three goals in FSU's 11-0 victory over Jacksonville on Wednesday, Sept. 13. The duo make up two of the team's top three scorers with Osorio recording 15 points and McGrath scoring 12 points.

GAME-WINNERS

Alexandra Osorio, Kelly Huff, Lizzie Easton and Kelly McGrath have each been credited with game-winning goals this season. Osorio's was an unassisted goal at the 19:00 mark of the West Florida game, while Huff's was scored just two minutes into the Jacksonville match. Erica Schuler got the assist on that one. Easton scored on a volley from 18 yards out at the 59:00 mark of the Memphis game, giving FSU a 2-1 advantage. The Noles went on to win 3-1. In Nebraska vs. Iowa State, McGrath came in off the bench to score FSU's second goal from point blank range.

'NOLES GO 2-3 AT HOME

The Seminoles finished the home slate of their inaugural season with a 2-3 record. The season's greatest attendance was when the then 10th-ranked Duke Blue Devils came to town. An estimated 903 fans crowded the soccer facility and were rewarded with probably the Seminoles best 90-minute outing of the season.

Georgia 5, FSU 4
Athens, Ga. • Oct. 27

Despite a hat-trick from FSU's Lauren Lynch, the Seminoles were edged 5-4 by the Georgia Bulldogs. Georgia started the scoring just 10 minutes into the match, but Lynch soon tied the contest with a cross to the far post at the 25:00 mark. Georgia again regained the lead and held the 2-1 advantage until Alexandra Osorio ripped a shot over the UGA keeper's head for a score at the 63:00 mark. The tie would be short-lived as Georgia went on to record goals at the 65:00, 77:00 and 80:00 marks. That's when Lynch went to work and scored goals at the 81:00 and 87:00 marks. Goalkeeper Melissa Juhl and midfielder Jacki Stradtman sustained injuries in the match.

MATCH 18

Wake Forest 4, FSU 1
Winston-Salem, N.C. • Oct. 31

Playing three games in four days took its toll on the Tribe as the squad fell, 4-1 to the Deacons. The loss gave FSU an eighth-place finish in the ACC. It was the first-ever ACC win for Wake. The Deacons notched a quick goal at the 6:23 mark and took a 1-0 advantage into halftime. The second half saw Wake Forest explode for three more goals. Lauren Lynch put FSU on the board at the 3:09 mark when she beat out the WFU goalie and scored an empty netter.
