FSU WOMEN'S SOCCER THUMPS JACKSONVILLE 11-0

JACKSONVILLE, FL-- The Florida State women's soccer team (4-1) shutout Jacksonville 11-0 (2-4) behind the hat trick and assist of freshman midfielder Kasey McCall at the Alexander Brest Soccer Field. FSU also shutout the Dolphins 11-0 last season in Tallahassee.

Continuing her streak of scoring an assist or goal in each of FSU's five contests, McCall led off the scoring with a drilling shot from 25 yards out in the 20th minute. FSU ended the first half with a 2-0 lead.

FSU senior transfer forward Kelley Poole opened up the second half scoring by a converting the Tribe's first penalty kick of the season. The Dolphins chipped in an own goal in the 51st minute, setting off three FSU goals in a seven-and-half minute span.

Sophomore forward Allison Hogan chipped in her first two goals of the season while six different Seminoles helped FSU to a 31-1 shots on goal advantage.

FSU heads back to Jacksonville on September 17th to face the North Florida Ospreys, 6:30 pm at Osprey Field.
