FSU DEFEATS NORTH FLORIDA 4-1

JACKSONVILLE, FL -- The Florida State women's soccer team (5-1) defeated North Florida 4-1 this evening at Osprey Soccer Field. The Seminoles were led by freshman midfielder Erin Grimsley's two goals, including the game winner at 22:45. FSU's Kelley Poole and Allison Hogan notched in goals as well, while Kasey McCall and Hogan chipped in with an assist. Goalkeepers Melissa Juhl and Jamie Gurtov combined for five saves in the win.

This season's fifth victory also eclipses last season total wins of four. McCall has earned a goal or an assist in each of the Tribe's six matches, while Grimsley has combined for three assists and two goals in her last two appearances.

The Seminoles travel to Greensboro, NC to meet East Carolina on September 20th and then to Durham for a match with ACC-rival Duke on the 22nd.
