FLORIDA STATE SHUTS OUT LADY VOLS 5-0

TALLAHASSEE, FL -- The Florida State women's soccer team (8-3) outshot the Tennessee Lady Volunteers (3-7) 21-4 en route to a 5-0 shut out in a heavy downpour this evening at the Seminole Intramural Soccer Complex.

In front of over 100 wet Seminole fans the Tribe went into the half at a scoreless tie.

Just into the second half, in the 57th minute, senior midfielder Kelley Poole broke the 0-0 tie with a scoring shot from 20 yards out in front of the net, with the assist to sophomore forward Lauren Lynch.

Freshman midfielder Kasey McCall added the 'Noles second goal four minutes later, from a corner kick by freshman forward Angela Bonaffino, right in front of the net.

UT's starting keeper Bethany Himel was given a red card in the 62nd minute after tackling a Seminole player and grabbing the ball outside the box. Following that ejection, the Seminoles scored three unanswered goals.

Bonaffino then added FSU's third goal three minutes later, in the 64th minute, from a cross pass by Poole.

Senior defender Nicole Sedgwick tapped in a shot from a few yards out (78:00), unassisted to put FSU up 4-0.

The Tribe's last score came in the final minute of play from a 30 yard rocket of shot by sophomore forward Kelly Huff that hit the upper part of the top crossbar ricocheting into the net.
