UNCG topples Florida State, 3-2 in come-from-behind effort Spartans dump ACC rival on homecoming for 10th win in 12 games

All-America All Lord scored on a header with 1:35 remaining to give the UNCG women's soccer team a come-from-behind 3-2 victory over Florida State Friday. It was the Spartans' 10th win in 12 games and third straight.

Lord took a short pass from Katie Bullington and headed the ball past Seminole goalie Melissa Juhl at the 88:25 mark for the game-winner and her 11th goal of the season. Kati Kantanen made the initial pass to Bullington and was also credited with an assist.

Kantanen scored her 10th goal of the campaign in the 57th minute to pull the Spartans even, assisted by Danica Baker.

Kantanen netted UNCG's first goal in the ninth minute, also assisted by Baker. But Florida State's Alex Osorio stole the ball from goalkeeper Paula Domitrovits directly in front of the net and scored her first goal of the season easily in the 16th minute.

April Murphy put the Seminoles up 2-1 with her third goal of the year in the 40th minute, taking a pass from Taryn Cervi and going one-on-one with Domitrovits.

The Seminoles fell to 3-7 with their fifth straight loss. It was the first-ever meeting between the teams.

The Spartans next play at Davidson in a Southern Conference game Tuesday at 7 p.m., putting their 4-0 league mark on the line against last year's champion. Florida State completes a two-game road trip at Elon Sunday.
