FSU WOMEN'S SOCCER GETS SHUTOUT WIN ON THE ROAD AT USF

TAMPA, FL -- With under a minute remaining in regulation, Florida State's Jill Ford scored the game-winning goal to defeat the University of South Florida 1-0 at the USF Soccer Stadium. FSU women's soccer (7-9) ends a two-match losing streak and get their third win on the road this season.

Ford, who now lead the team in goals (5), headed the game-winning goal from in front of the box off an assist by Alex Osorio. Osorio also leads the team in assists (6). The Seminoles out shot the Bulls 14-10.

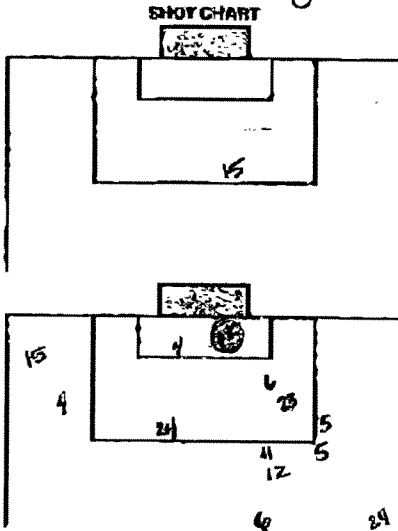

Florida State closes out it's home schedule Sunday, October 26 against Duke at the Seminole Soccer Complex at 2 p.m.
