

Seminoles split in softball play

ORLANDO — Florida State University women's softball team split a doubleheader with Florida Tech here Sunday. FTU won the first game, 8-3. It was the first loss of the year for Florida State.

The Seminoles won the second game, 10-5. In the first game, Cathy Norton went two-for-three for FSU.

Cheryl Cordes was the winning pitcher in the second game for FSU. Cathy Norton went three-for-four for the Seminoles in the game, while Bonnie Craig was two-for-three and Dianne Lawrence two-for-three.

FSU is now 12-1 and will play the University of Florida and the University of South Florida in Tampa today.