POSTGAME QUOTES

CONNECTICUT QUOTES:

Head Coach Karen Mullins: "I thought it was a tough game. We missed a lot of opportunities early, but I think we showed a lot of character by coming back to win." We believe in being aggressive and that's why I sent the runner in the seventh inning. Our girl has a lot of speed and we didn't feel that their leftfielder had a good arm. Obviously I was wrong."

Andrea D'Innocenzo: "My homerun was a 3-2 count and I knew that she had to come at me with a good pitch. She did and I jumped on it."

Pat Conlan: "I don't think many people expected us to be here, and now winning one feels great."

FLORIDA STATE QUOTES:

Head Coach JoAnne Graf: "It was a tough game. Both teams knew it was a 'do or die' situation. We had an opportunity in the fourth inning to blow the game open, but we didn't and I think we paid for it later."

Rebecca Aase: "I felt great coming out, even after the delay. They just kept pecking away, and eventually got to us late."
