FLORIDA STATE ELIMINATES OHIO UNIVERSITY, 2-0

TUCSON, AZ - Renee Espinoza struck out 13 Ohio batters and allowed just two hits and one walk as Florida State defeated the Bobcats 2-0 in an elimination bracket game at the NCAA Softball Regional Saturday afternoon at Hillenbrand Stadium on the campus of the University of Arizona.

Espinoza, who improved her record to 26-9 on the season, did not allow an Ohio hit until a bunt single in the fifth. The Lady Seminoles gave the junior righthander all the offensive support she needed with single runs in the first two innings. Laurie Shepard singled home Windy Weltz with the initial FSU tally in the opening frame, before Shamalene Wilson touched Ohio starter Annie Hare for a solo home run in the second to close out the scoring.

The Bobcats threatened with two away in the top of the seventh, but Espinoza inducted pinch-hitter Michelle Federer to bounce into a game ending grounder.

Hare (22-15) took the loss for Ohio, which ended its season at 39-22. FSU improved to 57-14, and advanced to meet Nebraska in Saturday night's elimination bracket final. The winner of that game will move on to face No. 1 Arizona in Sunday's regional final.
