FLORIDA STATE

TEMPE, AZ -- The 16th ranked Florida State softball team continued to feel the heat last night at the Arizona State Classic, the Lady Seminoles finished the day Friday against No. 2 Arizona with an 8-4 loss. Today, FSU went 2-0 knocking off Utah State and Illinois State. (8-3)

Sophomore, Niki Zenger (1-1) pitched against Arizona striking out nine but allowing 10 hits. Freshman Jesse McGregor went 3-4 including a double and a stolen base.

The Seminoles bounced back from their first losses of the season to record their first victory of the tournament against Illinois State 4-1 earlier today. Renee Espinoza (4-1) recorded the win for Florida State. Freshman Dana Bailey was a perfect 2-2 from the plate, including a double. Kristy Hull and Corrie Williams each went 2-3.

"This is a great win for us," commented Coach JoAnne Graf. "We had some tough losses yesterday, but came out today and turned it around. The freshman really impressed me, they were our offensive sparkplugs today."

Florida State finished the day with a 6-5 victory over Utah State. The Seminoles used Kristy Fuentes and Espinoza to record the victory. But, it was the offensive attack that sealed the victory.

Shamalene Wilson went 1-3, scoring two runs. Myssi Calkins went 1-1, scoring two runs as well.

"We gave up lots of hits early," said Graf. "Our offensive attack definitely kept us in the game."

Florida State will resume play tomorrow against No. 6 Cal State Fullerton.
