FLORIDA STATE SOFTBALL SPLITS WITH GEORGIA TECH

March 23, 1996

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - The 14th-ranked Florida State softball team took the first game of this afternoon's doubleheader with Georgia Tech by a score of 2-0 but fell 3-1 in game two. FSU is now 30-14 overall while the Lady Jackets are 19-10.

In game one, FSU senior Renee Espinoza (16-4) held the Lady Jackets to just two singles for the game while striking out eight batters. The Seminole offense was led by junior Myssi Calkins who reached base three times with two hits and a walk. The left fielder scored the Tribe's first run and drove in FSU's second run.

Georgia Tech enjoyed a three-run first in game two when FSU pitcher Kristy Fuentes (6-6), who retired the first two batters, walked three straight Lady Jackets. An error on FSU shortstop Jesse McGregor scored Tech's first run while left fielder Pam Bolton's basehit scored the other two runs. FSU sophomore pitcher Niki Zenger was brought in and struck out the next batter to retire the side. Zenger, who pitched the rest of the game (6 and 1/3), shut down the Lady Jackets as she allowed just three base hits and struck out four batters. FSU scored just one run in the contest as freshman Dana Bailey led off the fifth inning with a double and was sacraficed in by senior Shama Wilson.

"We got in some trouble on the mound in game two today and weren't able to recover," FSU coach Dr. JoAnne Graf said. "Every conference game is going to be important this season, so we'll just have to shake this off and regroup. We still have a lot of league games to play."

The win was Georgia Tech's first ever vs. Florida State as the Lady Seminoles had a 15-0 series advantage heading into today's doubleheader.

Florida State will play at FAMU on Wednesday, March 23 in a doubleheader beginning at 5:30 p.m.

FSU AT WOMEN'S NCAA SWIM CHAMPIONSHIP

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Florida State swimmers Jodi Krieg and Samantha White competed in the second day of the NCAA Women's Swimming Championship on Friday, hosted by the University of Michigan, in the 100 back and 100 breast.

White, a freshman, placed 13th overall in the 100 breast, breaking her own school record in a time of 1:03.67, while Krieg, a sophomore, finished in 33rd place with a time of 57.71.

White's performance put Florida State into a tie for 30th place overall, with the meet to be concluded today. Leading the meet after the second day is Stanford with 348 points, 70 more than second place Southern Methodist. ACC schools North Carolina and Clemson are in 16th and 29th, respectively, before tonight's action.

This meet will conclude the women's season and the men's championship will be held next weekend in Austin, Texas.
