FLORIDA STATE WOMEN'S SOFTBALL DROPS TWO IN CONFERENCE PLAY

CHAPEL HILL, NC--In a doubleheader played this afternoon, the Lady 'Noles were defeated twice (2-3, 4-5) when they faced ACC-foe University of North Carolina. Florida State falls to a 37-16 record on the year, while UNC improves their record to 27-21-1.

In the first of the matches played, Florida State was led offensively by junior outfielder Myssi Calkins. Calkins went 3-for-4 with 3 stolen bases and 1 RBI. Her batting effort wasn't enough to hold off the Tar Heels. The Tar Heels waited until the sixth inning to get two hits off of pitcher Renee Espinoza. The deuce led to a three run inning. In the seventh inning the Seminoles could not pull ahead of their one run deficit.

A sixth inning comeback fell one run short of victory for the Lady Seminoles in the second matchup of the afternoon at UNC-Chapel Hill. Espinoza took the mound in the fifth inning to replace sophomore Niki Zenger. Despite pitching the previous game, Espinoza was able to strike out 7 batters in the 13 inning game.

In addition to senior All-American Shama Wilson's 3 stolen bases, Calkins was able to pick up her second set of 3 in the 5-4 loss.

Tomorrow, Florida State will play in the Tar Heel Invitational at 2:30 p.m. against Campbell University.
