FLORIDA STATE SOFTBALL SWEEPS UNC-CHARLOTTE

TALLAHASSEE, FL -- The No. 12 Florida State softball team improved to 20-9 with a 4-1, 4-1 sweep of UNC-Charlotte this evening at Lady Seminole Field. The losses put UNCC at 11-9 for the year and 0-4 in Southern Atlantic Alliance play. The wins were FSU's first SAA games of the season.

Florida State jumped to an early 3-0 advantage in the first inning of game one as the squad's first three batters reached base on singles. Both leadoff hitter Dana Bailey and Misty Molin reached on bunts, while Christy Cerecedes' single to left field drove in Bailey. Molin scored on a wild pitch while Cerecedes scored when Kristy Hull reached on a fielder's choice. The first three Lady Seminoles to bat in the fourth inning would reach on singles as well with the Tribe's single run scored advancing due to a wild pitch.

Designated hitter Teresa Edenfield, formerly of Maclay High School, recorded three of FSU's four RBI's in game two going 2-for-3, with two doubles. With the score tied 1-1 in the fourth inning, Edenfield ripped an two-out double down the left field baseline, scoring Corrie Williams and Kristy Hull, who had reached on a hit and fielders' choice. In the FSU sixth, Edenfield again doubled to left with two out, scoring pitcher Jen White, who had reached on a single.

Freshman pitching ace Jennifer White recorded both victories to improve her record to 15-6 overall. She struck out five batters and walked three in 14 innings of work.

Tonight's doubleheader kicked off an action-packed week for the Lady Seminoles. FSU will host Miami-Ohio tomorrow at 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. -- which is a new start time. On Thursday, FSU will host Purdue in a single contest at 6 p.m. and Friday begins the Tallahassee Democrat Florida State 24-Team Invitational.
