

FSU women win eighth

Special to the Democrat

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Jana Wilkins won three events, two of them with school-record times, to spark Florida State's women's swim team to a 78-53 win over South Carolina here Saturday.

Wilkins won the 200 IM in 2:13.84, the 50 fly in 27.7 and the 200 fly in 2:11.5. The 200 IM and 200 fly were school records, and the 200 IM was good to qualify for nationals.

Double winners for the Lady Seminoles, now 8-4 on the season, were Patty McDonald (one and three meter diving) and Sarah Schuester (200 backstroke and 200 breaststroke).

Two other Lady Seminoles qualified for Nationals. Jackie Walker won the 1650 freestyle in 17:37.2 and Beth Joens was second (17:49.15).
