FLORIDA STATE SWIMMING AT WOMEN'S NCAA SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIPS

Indianapolis, IN -- Going into the third day of competition in 24th place with 13 points, the Florida State women's swimming team failed to have any swimmers advance to the finals session tonight. Florida State's best chance of having a swimmer swim in the scoring heats tonight was 1995 All-American Helen Jepson in the 200 butterfly, but the senior was disqualified in the morning preliminaries. Sophomore Sam White finished 29th in the 200 breast.

If Florida State can hold on with their 13 points, they could take their highest finish ever at the NCAA's, as their previous high was 26th in 1988. White was the highest scoring swimmer for the Lady Seminoles, as she placed ninth in the 100 breast on Friday night with a time of 1:02.35. Freshman Anne Blachford was the other scorer for FSU, as she finished 13th in the 200 IM.
