Lady Seminoles Finish In Fifth At The ACC Swim And Dive Championships

Chelsie Lerew comes away with Most Valuable Diver Award.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The University of North Carolina defended their title on Saturday winning the ACC Swim and Dive Championships with a total of 823 points, 183.50 points higher than second place Virginia (639.50). Clemson finished in third with 522.50 points, while Maryland claimed the fourth spot with 460 points. Florida State finished in fifth with 421 points, with North Carolina State (345) and Duke (159) rounding out the sixth and seventh spots, respectively.

Freshman diver, Chelsie Lerew had a remarkable showing at her first ACC Championships, sweeping the diving competitions in both the one-meter and three-meter dives. After FSU claimed the top three spots in the one-meter dive on Thursday, Lerew, Hirai, and Sekeres were hungry for more. Lerew would take first place in the preliminary action on Friday and carried her impressive performance to the finals on Saturday. She would go on to finish the evening with 493.70 points, her second highest point total of the season, to win the three-meter diving competition. With her outstanding performance, Lerew was honored with the Most Valuable Diver Award at this year's ACC Championships.

In other diving results, Caren Hirai finished in sixth place with 423.85 points, while Michelle Sekeres came in 11th with 379.15.

In the 100 Freestyle, returning champion Christy Cech looked to repeat her performance from last year. She finished the morning prelims in first place with a time of 50.21. Then in the championship final, Cech would go on to finish in a time of 50.14, which was good for third place overall.

Keryn Krynauw and Emma Dutton had a good meet for the Lady Noles placing in the top six in both the 100 and 200 Breaststroke this weekend. In the championship final of the 200 Breaststroke, Krynauw and Dutton would finish third and fifth, respectively. Krynauw's time of 2:14.93 was a new personal best for her this season. Kristen Keelen finished third in the consolation final and 11th overall in a time of 2:20.53.

The men's swimming and diving team will head to Charlottesville, Virginia on Thursday, February 22, 2001 for Day 1 of competition at the ACC Championships.

Lady Seminoles Swimming And Diving Finish Day Two In Fifth Place At the ACC Championships

Lady Noles look to finish strong in the last day of competition.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – After the second day of competition at the ACC Championships in Charlottesville, Virginia, the Lady Seminoles dropped one spot to finish the day in fifth place. The University of North Carolina increased their lead at the top with 535 points, 112 more points than second place Virginia (423). Clemson jumped two spots to third with 353 points, while the University of Maryland fell to fourth with 315 points. The Seminoles are in fifth with 270 points, while North Carolina State (223) and Duke (108) hold the sixth and seventh spots, respectively.

The Seminoles qualified two swimmers for the evening finals in the 100 Breaststroke with Freshman Emma Dutton and Junior Keryn Krynauw. Dutton finished with a personal best time in the championship final of 1:03.02, which was good for fifth place. Krynauw also finished with a personal best time of 1:03.30 finishing right behind Dutton in sixth. Both times for Dutton and Krynauw were good enough for qualification in the NCAA Standard B category.

In the 100 Butterfly, Candice Nethercott finished in fifth place with a time of 56.02, good for NCAA Standard B consideration. Summer Bell swam in the consolation final finishing fifth, and 13th overall in a time of 57.78.

In the 100 Freestyle, Christy Cech's championship final time of 1:50.73 was good for seventh place and qualification for NCAA Standard B. Kristen Adams swam in the consolation final finishing in second place, 10th overall in a time of 1:51.30. In the 100 Backstroke, Amber Goodwin finished in seventh place in a time of 57.81.

The three-meter diving preliminary competition was underway on Friday afternoon as well. One-meter champion, Chelsie Lerew picked up right where she left off, finishing in first place with a total of 483.65 points. Caren Hirai finished in sixth place with a total of 401.65 and Michelle Sekeres gathered 379.15 points on her way to an 11th place finish.

The Lady Seminoles wrap-up their trip to the ACC Championships today with preliminary action taking place at 11 a.m. and the finals at 7 p.m.

Lady Seminoles Swimming and Diving Finish Day One In Fourth Place At ACC Championships

Diving team leads the way for the Seminoles after day one.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – After day one of competition at the ACC Championships in Charlottesville, Virginia, the defending champions North Carolina Tar Heels, are atop the leader board with a score of 247 points. They are followed by the University of Virginia (210), the University of Maryland (153), Florida State University (139), Clemson University (137), North Carolina State (100), and Duke University (38).

The Lady Seminole diving team swept the top three spots in the one-meter diving competition on Thursday evening. Freshman, Chelsie Lerew continued her hot streak by taking the crown in a score of 274.50. She was followed by teammates Caren Hirai (258.70) and Michelle Sekeres (256.90), who rounded out the second and third place spots.

In preliminary action early Thursday morning, the Lady Seminoles qualified a handful of swimmers for the evening finals. Freshman, Emma Dutton's time of 2:07.21 in the 200 Individual Medley was good to place her in the consolation final. Dutton proceeded to finish second in the consolation final with a time of 2:04.99, which was good for 10th overall.

In the 50 Freestyle, Christy Cech finished the morning prelims in a time of 23.34, which was good for a spot in the championship final. Cech finished third in the championship final with a time of 22.94. Her time was also good enough to qualify her for the NCAA Standard B time. In the consolation final, Kristen Adams finished fifth in a time of 23.90.

In relay action, the Lady Seminoles team of Adams, Cech, Amber Goodwin, and Christine Williams finished fifth in the 200 Freestyle Relay. Their time of 1:32.94 was good for qualification in the NCAA Standard B category. In the 400 Medley Relay, the Noles team of Goodwin, Keryn Krynauw, Candice Nethercott, and Cech finished fourth in a time of 3:45.97.

The Lady Seminoles are back in action Friday morning with preliminary events beginning at 11 a.m. and final swims Friday evening at 7 p.m.

Today's scheduled events are:

200 Medley Relay

400 IM

100 Butterfly

200 Freestyle

100 Breaststroke
