ATHENS, Ga. — Murphy's Law was in effect for the Florida State Lady Seminole tennis team, right up until match time. That's when they took apart No. 20-ranked Georgia, winning 7-2 Sunday.

No. 2 player Lisa Ehrgott got sick and senior Susan Mueller took over.

On top of everything, Florida State was a late to the match.

On top of everything, Florida State was an hour late to the match.

Despite all the adversity, FSU trounced Georgia and Mueller won her singles match, 7-6, 6-2 over Jenny Thornton. She then teamed with Debbie Pollack to defeat Francis Turner and Maxxine Kaufman 6-4, 6-2 in doubles.

Florida State moves to 7-2 and Georgia drops to 1-1. The Lady Seminoles will next host Northeast Louisiana Wednesday at 2 p.m.
