FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tallahassee, Fla. -- Teams from Louisiana State and U.S. International universities will meet in the finals of the 22nd Annual Lady Seminole Tennis Invitational today at 9 a.m. at the Don Loucks Varsity Courts.

LSU defeated Florida State 7-2 Saturday as the Seminoles could come up with just two singles victories. Senior Debbie Pollack continued her strong play at no. 4 singles by beating Letitia Herrera 6-4, 6-3 while Claudia Gaugh, taking over for the injured Darlene Finnegan, won 6-3, 6-2 over Eleonor Jonasson at no. 6.

Florida State, 6-3, takes on South Florida, who lost to U. S. International 5-4 in the other semifinal Saturday, in the battle for third place. The USF-FSU match begins at 11 am with doubles play as Florida State tries to avenge a 8-1 loss to the Lady Brahms earlier this season.

In Saturday's other matches, North Carolina beat Duke 7-2 to take the consolation round championship while Georgia defeated Rollins 5-1 for seventh place.
