Tampa, Fla.--The South Florida women's tennis team defeated Florida State 7-2 Friday afternoon in Tampa to avenge an 05-4 loss to the Lady Seminoles earlier in the season.

FSU, now 15-9, lost all six singles matches, before it ~~claimed~~ took two out of three victories in the doubles competition.

The number one doubles team of Patti Henderson and Sue Hatch ^{claimed} ~~claimed~~ a 6-4, 6-2 win over ^{South Florida's} Laura Garcia and Anna Almanza. Florida State's other win came in the number two doubles, as Kim Temples and Christie Wood defeated Melissa Wooley and Rachael Stanton. 6-3, 6-7, 6-1.

"South Florida was ready to play in the singles matches," FSU head coach Anne Rizza said. "We came back in the doubles and played well."

The Lady Seminoles final regular season match will be on Sunday against Rollins in Winter Park.
