

CLEMSON WINS OVER FLORIDA STATE 6-3

CLEMSON, SC--Tara Lynch and Shannon King won over Jennifer Hyde and Nicki Ivy at number three doubles for the clinching victory as 22nd-ranked Clemson defeated Florida State 6-3 in Atlantic Coast Conference women's tennis action Saturday afternoon at Clemson, SC.

Clemson improves its record to 15-7 overall, and 5-3 in the ACC. Florida State drops to 11-9 overall, 4-2 in league play. This was the last match of the season for the Lady Tigers. Clemson along with Florida State will participate in the ACC tournament on April 17-19 in Charlotte, NC.

Florida State's Audra Brannon, ranked 64th in the nation, was an easy winner over Clemson's Mimi Burgo at number one singles 6-2, 6-2. Chrissie Tee of Florida State was also a winner at number two singles as her opponent Amy Young was forced to retire in the first set due to a wrist injury.

However, Clemson won the remaining four singles matches and won two of the three doubles matches for the victory.

Clemson's Amy Hise won her 21st match of the season with a 6-0, 7-6 win over Robin Cifaldi at number four singles. Hise has a 21-9 record in singles play this season.
