SEMINOLES DOWN TAR HEELS IN WOMEN'S TENNIS ACTION

(Chapel Hill, N. C.) –The Florida State women's tennis team downed North Carolina 7-2 Saturday afternoon at the Cone-Kenfield Tennis Center in Chapel Hill, N. C. The Seminoles won five of six singles matches and two of three doubles matches to earn their margin of victory.

Tar Heel senior Scotti Thomas defeated Jen Hyde at the #5 singles slot for Carolina's lone singles victory. With the victory, Thomas upped her record at #5 to 6-0 and 12-10 overall this spring.

Carolina's #3 doubles team, Thomas and freshman Alison Levy, defeated Delaney and Randman to provide Carolina's other scoring.

With the loss, Carolina falls to 6-11 overall, 1-3 in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The Tar Heels visit Wake Forest Tuesday afternoon in Winston-Salem.
