DUKE DEFEATS FLORIDA STATE IN ACC WOMENS' TENNIS

The Duke womens' tennis team defeated the Florida State Seminoles in a close ACC match on Sunday, securing the 5-4 victory over the conference foe. The two squads split the singles, finishing in a 3-3 tie heading into doubles. Florida State's Audra Brannon and Elke Juul won the No. 1 doubles over Duke's Wendy Lyons and Monica Mraz by scores of 6-1, 6-3, while the Blue Devils tied the match at 4-4 after Christine Neuman and Karen O'Sullivan defeated Florida State's No. 2 doubles team, Jennifer Hyde and Lori Sowell, 7-6, 6-1. The No. 3 doubles match went three sets before Duke's Wendy Fix and Kim Schiff collected a 6-7, 6-2, 6-1 win over FSU's Ashley Delaney and Laura Randmaa to give Duke the win.

The Blue Devils move to 13-4 on the year, 6-0 in the ACC. Florida State drops to 11-8 overall.
