NO. 3 DUKE WOMEN'S TENNIS CRUISES PAST ANOTHER ACC OPPONENT

DURHAM, N.C. -- The No. 3 ranked Duke women's tennis team had little trouble defeating Florida State on Thursday afternoon as the Blue Devils earned an 8-1 victory over the Seminoles. Duke won all six singles matches in straight sets to clinch the team victory. With the win, Duke improves to 19-3 overall and 7-0 in the conference. Florida State drops to 10-10 and 1-6 in the ACC.

Duke now owns a streak of 70-consecutive wins over ACC teams during the regular season and 98-straight over conference opponents in all competition.

Junior two-time All-America Vanessa Webb, ranked No. 3 in the country, had little trouble winning her 31st match of the year for Duke as she defeated Florida State's Nanette Duxin 6-1, 6-0 at the No. 1 position. Also winning for Duke in singles was junior Kristin Sanderson at No. 2, junior Karen Goldstein at No. 3, freshman Kathy Sell at No. 4, senior Laura Zifer at No. 5, and senior Ellen McCance at No. 6.

Duke won the top two doubles positions as well. Webb joined Goldstein at No. 1 doubles to defeat the FSU duo of Duxin and Kylie Thompson 8-2, while Sanderson and Sell won at the No. 2 spot over Florida State's Sasha Hanna and Kia Asberg, by an 8-5 score.

The Blue Devils will return to action this Saturday, April 11, for their final home match. Duke will battle No. 17 Notre Dame at 1:00 p.m.
