FLORIDA STATE TENNIS PLAYERS AWARDED ALL ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE HONORS

Alida Gallovits and Xavier Luscan join the best of the best on the All-ACC Team

TALLAHASSEE, FL.—Florida State's Alida Gallovits, a junior from Romania, made the All-Atlantic Coast Conference Tennis Team for the third straight year while Xavier Luscan, also a junior, picked up his second selection in two years at FSU. The All-ACC Teams, which are voted on by the head coaches in each league, consist of 12 men and 12 women.

Gallovits, a straight A student who has been the No. 1 player on the women's team for the past three years, went 6-4 against ACC opponents this season and currently holds 65th place in the ITA singles rankings. As the 2001 Golden Nole MVP Award winner for women's tennis she has led her team to a 14-10 regular season record and a national ranking of No. 42, and she also helped the Lady Seminoles reach the semi-final round of the ACC tournament in Orlando this past weekend.

Luscan, the men's tennis team's top player and MVP, had an outstanding 7-1 run against ACC opponents this year, playing mainly at the No. 1 position for the Seminoles, and he helped his team to a 4-4 record and 5th place in the ACC tournament. The men are currently ranked No. 65 by the ITA and will play their last home match on Sunday April 29th at 1:00 p.m. against the 20th-ranked Auburn Tigers.

When a player is listed as a "bye" in a tournament, it means that the player did not play in that round. This is usually the case when a player is the only one in their bracket or when they are the top seed in a tournament. In this case, the player was listed as a "bye" in the first round of the tournament.
