TES: Competition opened at 1:30 pm and finished at 6:52 for five hours, 22 minutes. The high jump was competed on two pits and lasted one hour and 20 minutes. Competition was halted briefly for the heptathlon 200 meter heats. The jumping included 85 jumps of which 37 were successful for 43.5%. Sanders took the most jumps, 14, and the winner, Eriksson, 7. Eriksson set a new Collegiate and Texas Relays decathlon high jump record with 2.21/7-3. He attempted 2.27/7-5½. Hanna dropped out after three events and Overton after the high jump with an injured leg. Overton won the 100; Eriksson the long jump and high jump; Oberg the shot put and Marsh the 400. Two 100 heats were windy and the long jump was legal - against the wind.
