2003 NCAA Men's and Women's Indoor Track & Field Championships

Quotes

Women's 60-meter dash

Muna Lee, LSU

"I was really nervous before the race. I always worried about doing stuff wrong and I try to correct it at the last second. This was one of my best meets ever and I am very happy about it. I did my part; we all are. I just hope we can win it so our seniors go out with a bang."

Women's 200-meter dash

Muna Lee, LSU

"The finals were just to win and help out the team. There wasn't any pressure and I got some points for my team. I'm glad my time was better than last year."

Women's 400-meter dash

LeShinda Demus, South Carolina

"I was just thankful to get to the finals because of all the tough competitors in the prelims. I am very thankful to get the win."

Women's 800-meter run

Lena Nilsson, UCLA

"After the preliminaries I thought I was out. I could not believe I got a second chance so I was going to take it. She (LSU runner) passed me before the last lap so I decided to wait until the end to get around her."

Women's Mile

Johanna Nilsson, Northern Arizona

"I was surprised it was so easy at the end. With two laps to go, I followed her (Tiffany McWilliams, MSU) as long as I could then I saw a good spot to go by myself. I looked back, and she was way back. I thought it would be tougher."

Women's 3,000-meter run

Shalane Flanagan, North Carolina

"I knew I had to get going to help my team out, but winning was a goal of mine. Last year, I did three events. It was a good learning experience and it taught me to be tougher out there when you are tired. I learned a lot from that experience."

Women's 5,000-meter run

Sara Gorten, Colorado

"All the girls are incredible runners and they were a big pack going into the last lap. When I heard the bell ring, I just started kicking as hard as I could to see if I could win. I got ahead in the last lap and was fortunate enough to hold on for the win."

Women's 60-meter hurdles

Lolo Jones, LSU

"When I was in the box, I was like you can do this. You can win nationals. Coach (Dennis) Schaver changed something in my blocks after the prelims, and it felt really good. I had two goals coming in. They were to make the 60 finals and win the hurdles. I needed to make up some points for my team, and I wasn't going to psyche myself out in the finals."

Women's 4x400-meter relay

Sanya Richards, Texas

"We came in with high expectations, we expected to be tested early, but we hung on and won. That was our goal coming into the race was to win. The last lap I had to step it up because South Carolina was so close. This was a great time for us, probably the best we've ran all year."

2003 NCAA Men's and Women's Indoor Track & Field Championships

Quotes

Women's Distance Medley Relay

Shalane Flanagan, North Carolina

"We came here after getting second for the past two years and are excited about finally winning and getting the job done. This is just another step for us in winning the national championship."

Women's Pole Vault

Lacy Janson, Florida State

"This was awesome and by far the best competition I've ever participated in. I was so pumped about this win and I still haven't grasped it, really. I knew I had it in me to jump this high but it was all a matter of doing it. I've never had so many fans cheering for me on one attempt. It felt great to have all the fan support behind me. Fans and athletes of track are all so nice and friendly that they cheer for anyone because they want the best for everyone."

Women's Long Jump

Elva Goulbourne, Auburn

(on distance) "It didn't surprise me at all. I expected to do that. If the 60 meters would have been before I started jumping then I would have not only taken one jump."

Women's Triple Jump

Elva Goulbourne, Auburn

"I did surprise myself and didn't expect to win since it was the second time I've jumped and haven't practiced. I told my coach I can do that hop, skip and jump. I didn't think when I took the lead it would stand up, but I wasn't going to take any more than two jumps because of the 60."

Women's Weight Throw

Erin Gilreath, Florida

"I was really happy on my performance today. I was excited about throwing against all the great competition. I wanted to end the season on a good note. I think it's going to be a close meet for the team and it will probably come down to the 4 x 4. I am really proud of everyone and hopefully we'll finish with a good meet score."
