

Volleyball Team State Champions

The FSU women's volleyball team won the State Senior College Championship held at Rollins College last week. The FSU team wiped out the University of Florida, Florida Southern, Stetson University and the University of South Florida, all by match scores of 2-0.

In the championship match the FSU team played almost flawless volleyball in defeating Flagler College by scores of 2-0 and 15-0.

In January the team will compete for the combined Senior and Junior College Championship at a site yet to be announced.
