

FSU loses 2 of 3 in volleyball

ORLANDO — The Florida State Lady Seminole volleyball team took its lumps again Saturday in the University of Central Florida invitational tournament. Florida State beat Auburn, 15-5, 15-7 but then lost to Central Florida, 7-15, 6-15 and the University of Miami 9-15, 15-10 and 14-16.

On Friday, the Lady Seminoles lost three out of four matches.

Central Florida won all seven of its matches to capture the tournament.

Florida State will host its own invitational tournament Friday and Saturday with 16 teams expected to compete, including Central Florida, Miami, North Carolina and South Carolina.
