Lady Seminoles fall early to Santa Clara but respond with strong showing vs. the Huskies.

DEKALB, Ill. -- The Florida State volleyball team rebounded from a three-set loss to Santa Clara early in the day to down host Northern Illinois in three games in the final match of the Northern Illinois Invitational. FSU, now 3-4 on the year, fell to Santa Clara by scores of 8-15, 4-15, 10-15. The win over the Huskies was by scores of 15-3, 15-11, 15-9.

Junior Jennifer Werrick, who had a career-high 27 kills in Friday's match vs. UT-Arlington, continued to dominate for the Tribe in today's action. The outside hitter had a team-high .355 hitting performance against Santa Clara on 14 kills. Against NIU, she was very impressive with 12 kills on 25 attempts and just two errors for a .400 hitting performance. She also added 10 digs to the effort. Senior Aisha Thornton was error-free for the match with 12 kills on 18 attempts on her way to a .667 hitting percentage while freshman Erica Bunch also hit double figures in hitting with a team-high 13 kills.

"I think it was important for us to get the win over Northern Illinois," FSU Head Coach Cecile Reynaud said. "It was a real team-effort and with the youth we have on this team, we are going to have to have everyone contribute in order to be successful."

Florida State's next action will be vs. UC-Santa Barbara on Wednesday, Sept. 15th at Tully Gym. Game time is 7 p.m.
