FLORIDA STATE VOLLEYBALL FALLS TO DUKE

Junior Jennifer Werrick has match highs of 25 kills and 20 digs in the effort

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- Playing without three starters, the Florida State volleyball team fell to Duke in four games with scores of 3-15, 15-7, 13-15, 11-15, this evening at Tully Gymnasium. The loss puts the Lady Seminoles at 8-16 overall and 1-10 in the ACC while Duke improves to 10-12 overall and 4-8 in league play.

FSU was without senior starting middle hitter Aisha Thornton, who fractured her hand this week in a car accident, starting setter Jamie Hibbard, who sprained her right ankle and starting outside hitter Kristin Frye who has been sidelined with a right ankle fracture since October 3rd. Freshman walk-on Tara Visser handled the setting duties for the Tribe and recorded 50 assists in the match. Freshman middle hitter Dawn Hough got the starting nod in place of Thornton and had nine kills and six blocks.

After recording a negative hitting percentage in game one (-.059), the Lady Seminoles responded with a dominating game two, outhitting the Blue Devils .452 to .318. The final two sets were very competitive, but Duke's consistent lineup aided the Blue Devils to victory. Florida State's Jennifer Werrick recorded 25 kills and 20 digs to lead all players while sophomore Norisha Campbell added 16 kills. Visser also had 12 digs to her credit. Four players tallied double figure kills for Duke with Dominique Philipp leading the charge with 15 kills. Jami Ediger added 13 while both Jill Sonne and Ashley Harris had 12. Duke hit .300 as a team and outblocked FSU 12-9.

"I was very pleased with the effort of the young ladies we had on the floor tonight," FSU Head Coach Dr. Cecile Reynaud said. "It's tough to play without your leading hitter and starting setter, but I thought both Dawn (Hough) and Tara (Visser) stepped in and gave a great effort."

Florida State will host Wake Forest (20-6, 7-4) on Sunday, October 31st at 3:30 p.m. The match will be played at Tully Gymnasium and will be televised live on Sunshine Network.
